Receivelt Electors Under G. O. P. Emblem.

In states where the law requires that the names of Taft and Sherman be placed on the ballot as the republican nominees, the Roosevelt candidates for electors will go in a separate col-umn. Where the law does not exact this, the Roosevelt candidates prob-ably will be placed under the regular republican emblem, on the theory that Col. Roosevelt is the legitimate nom-inee of the party. This claim goes back to the meeting held in Chicago on the night the republican national convention adjourned. The Roose-velt delegates, together with Roosevelt andidates for seats in the national onvention, who were excluded by the national committee, assembled in Orhestra hall and tendered the presidential nomination to Col. Roosevelt, de-claring they constituted a majority of the honestly chosen delegates to the convention.

The plan differs from the one proposed in Pennsylvania by William Film, which probably will be adopted there. In Pennsylvania it is planned that the Roosevelt candidates for electhat the Roosevelt candidates for elec-tors already chosen on the republican ticket shall run on the national pro-gressive as well as the republican ticket, with the agreement to vote for the candidate for president who receives the largest popular vote. the six states named by Col. Rovelt, it is expected that the Rovelt candidates will be placed on only one ticket and no such agreement will be made. In Pennsylvania, however, it is the purpose of the Roosevelt leaders to retain control, if possible, of the republican organization.

PROGRESSIVE SENATORS DE-SERT THE G. O. P.

WOOLEN TARIFF BILL

La Follette Measure, Which Taft Vetoed Last Year, Passed by Senate-"Lightning Change Tactics."

Washington, July 25.—Ten progres-sive republicans overthrew the regular republicans in the senate late tonight and joined with the democrats in pass-ing the LaFollette woolen tariff resousion bill as a substitute for the democratic measure framed in the house of representatives. The LaFollette bill was adopted by a vote of 47 to 29 less than two hours after the republican leaders had accepted what they believed was a victory when a compromise substitute bill of Senator Penrose was passed in the committee of the whole.

Day of Surprising Events. The sudden termination of the wool twiff fight came as the climax of a day full of surprising events. The dem-ocratic house bill for a revision of the vool tariff was technically before the enate. The progressives first voted or Senator Cummins' substitute, the rates of which were slightly above those of the democratic bill. They were here defeated, 57 to 14. Then Senator Penrose came forward with a compromise measure, considerably compromise measure, considerably higher than the democratic bill, but which regular democrats and progres-sive republicans believed they could agree upon mittee. Led by defeated Senator Cummins who said he would accept the proposed bill as a step in the right direction, all but three of the progressives in the committee of the whole rallied to the support of the Penrose measure, and it was adopted by the narrow margin of 34 to 32. The amended measure thea passed into the senate proper.

LaFollette Bill Introduced. In the meantime, Senator LaFollette who with Senat rs Clapp and Kenyon had joined the democrats in voting against the Penrose substitute, saw an opportunity to again pass his bill of 1911, which President Taft had vetoed. There was a quick raily of progressive forces, and the LaFoilette bill was introduced as a substitute for the al-ready amended bill.

LaFollette Substitute Passes. became the substitute for the democratic house bill, and the senate finally passed it, 47 to 20. The amended bill goes back to the house of representatives, and the resulting tariff sit-uation is exactly that which follower the adoption of a woolen tariff bill by the special session of 1911. The La-Follette bill is the same as passed then by the senate with a raw wool duty o cent, on manufactured goods,

Situation Identical With That of 1911 The house bill in the same as then passed by the house with the raw wool duty of 20 per cent.
